

HHJ Fayyaz Afzal CBE

Fayyaz Afzal is the only blind judge in the country.

He was the first person in his family to go to university. He studied law.

He was one of a very few blind lawyers in the Midlands.

He became a judge in 2017.

He is the president of Midland Asian Lawyers Association.

He works to increase the number of disabled people and people from different backgrounds working in the courts.

